ONE OF BLOODIEST WARS IN HISTORY

In Six Weeks of Fighting More Than 30,000 Men Are Killed.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] London, November 16.—More than 30,000 men have been killed and more than 150,000 wounded in the Balkan war thus far, according to estimates to-day by experts, who said their figures probably erred on the side of conservatism.

Exactness, it was agreed, is impossible, as each side has exaggerated the enemy's and minimized its own losses. But two or three correspondents, and perhaps a half-dozen foreign military observers, have been permitted to see any actual fighting. No official casualty lists have been issued.

The losses in killed and wounded were placed by the best judges, however, classified by nationalities, substantially as follows:

Killed	Wounded
Turks..... 20,000	100,000
Bulgarians..... 10,000	40,000
Servians..... 3,500	15,500
Montenegrins..... 800	5,200
Greek..... 300	2,200

Totals..... $1,600 153,900

This roll of dead and wounded was recorded in almost exactly six weeks, one of the longest for so brief a space of time in any war in history.

No allowance was made for the number of victims of the various massacres charged against both sides. That list, from all accounts, has been an appalling one, but reports have been as yet too indefinite for the basing of an estimate.

A heavy allowance must also be made, the authorities said, for those who have succumbed to starvation and disease. Until more detailed information has been received from the Constantinople side the score of those already dead from these causes will also remain the merest guesswork.

Probably, the estimators surmised, the massacre, starvation and cholera victims will foot up three or four times the total of both killed and wounded in actual battle.

Military men placed the financial cost of the war, in excess of the expenses of keeping up the Balkan states' regular military establishments, at $2,500,000 daily since the war began, or about $125,000,000 thus far. Of course this did not include losses through the prostration of trade, the destruction of property or the value of the services of the men killed or maimed for life.

Say He Stole Feed.
Falcon White, colored, was arrested last night by Patrolman Hooker on the charge of stealing one bale of hay and a quantity of oats from the C. P. Sauer Company's Meadow and Broad Streets, where he was employed. The police say that White, with another negro, for whom they are searching, has been stealing feed from the concern for some time.

Arrested for Shooting at Man.
Ernest Lewis, colored, was arrested last night about 12 o'clock on the charge of shooting at Beverly Coleman, also colored. When he was arrested at the First Police Station a revolver was found in his possession, and he was also charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Kicked in Jaw by Mule.
William Dabney, colored, employed by C. P. Lathrop & Co., was badly hurt yesterday afternoon when he was kicked by a mule while at work at Sixteenth and Marshall Streets. The animal's hoof landed on Dabney's jaw and broke the bone. He was treated by Dr. H. T. Hawkins, ambulance surgeon, rendered emergency treatment, and removed to the City Hospital.

SACRIFICES LIFE ON FUNERAL PYRE

Daughter of Sultan Dies While
Her Lamenting Servants
Look On.

GRIEVED OVER HER COUNTRY

Builds Pile With Own Hands and Lights Fatal Fire.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] St. Petersburg, November 16.—According to a Russian correspondent who is at Constantinople, Zekie, the eldest daughter of Abdul Hamid, the Turkish Sultan, who was very patriotic, was overcome with despair on account of her country's disasters and dramatically committed suicide in the garden of her magnificent palace at Abusheir.

Her husband was Nureddin Pasha, a general of a division of the army, and a son of the famous Osman Pasha Ghazi, "the victorious." He was fighting under Nazim Pasha, the Turkish Minister of War, who, although he declared to the Sultan that he would die in the battlefield rather than retreat in defeat, has been overwhelmed with defeat, and is now advising the Turkish ministers to abandon the war.

As the news of the successive Turkish defeats came in, Princess Zekie became morose and ceased to carry on intercourse with her friends. After the defeat of the Turks at Lule Burgas leaked out in the Ottoman capital, the princess determined to commit suicide.

She built a funeral pyre with her own hands and decorated it with flowers and precious tapestries.

The servants were very anxious over their mistress's behavior, but they did not dare to interfere. The princess spent a long time in her apartments in silent prayer. Finally she came out, her hair flowing and attired in a long garment, ascended and lit the pyre. She was burned to death while the servants stood around lamenting, but, with characteristic Turkish fatalism, did not attempt to prevent the saddened woman from taking her own life.

Afterwards a letter from Princess Zekie to her husband was found, in which she declared that she could not survive the ruin of her people, and cursed the beaten army for its loss of the ancient valor. The letter closed with a prayer to Allah not to permit the complete destruction of the Ottoman nation.

Youth Arrested for Speeding.
Henry Winston, Jr., sixteen years old, of 101 Grove Avenue, was arrested yesterday by Motorcycle Officer Samuels for driving an automobile in the West End faster than allowed by law. He was taken to the Second Police Station, where he was bailed for his appearance to-morrow in the Juvenile Court.

Musical Recital.
The pupils of Miss Roberta Mitchell gave their first monthly recital at her studio yesterday afternoon. Among those taking part were Misses Eliza, Annie, Lott, Olive, Lewis, Helen, Children, Hazel Jackson, Edie Johnson, Emory Johnson, Julia Whitmore, Blanche Jackson, Annie Engle, Ethelbert Taylor, Grace Lawrence, Gladys Thomas, Edie Evans, Avis Hillman and Alfred Heister.

BULGARIAN ARMY BEGINS ADVANCE ON TURK CAPITAL

The admiration of military men. First reports from that town seemed to make it an easy task for the Montenegrins to capture it, but only recently the Turkish commander, who has put up so grim a fight, was quoted as saying that he will hold the fortress until his last man falls, even if he is ordered by his government to surrender, and that he will never fall alive into the hands of the Montenegrins.

It is reported that Russia has formally recognized the Greek occupation of Salonica, and if Greece intends to remain there, the Austrian contention that Serbia's desire for a seaport might be secured by obtaining one on the Aegean instead of the Adriatic would seem to be discounted.

The Greeks' army in Epirus, halted for a while by the heavy floods in that region, is on the march again, with Janina as the goal.

Diplomats Are Busy.
But while the Bulgars and Mont-negrins and Greeks are still harrying the Turks, the diplomats are busy with the perplexing snarl of proposals which have peace as their object. There seems to be a feeling in Constantinople that this war is really over, though cannon are still thundering.

Apathetic Constantinople seems to realize the hopelessness of further resistance. An armistice with the Bulgars will probably be arranged within a few days, and this will be followed by direct peace negotiations.

How deep is this realization on the part of all the Moslems, save the hot-headed Chauvinists, is indicated by the action of the banks and council of the Ottoman public debt. They are already taking stock of their own interests in the lost provinces with a view of self-protection when the peace talks come to a head. The council has suggested to the European syndicates the advisability of now attempting to safeguard the interests of bondholders.

From Prague comes word of an incident that shows just what troubles Austria will have with her great mixed population in case she should vote for war against Serbia. The Czechs and Slavs at Prague hissed a body of Austrian troops as they were entraining on their way to the Serbian frontier.

"They are going to fight our brothers," "Shame on them," "Hurray for Serbia," were some of the cries that were uttered. It was only after repeated charges by the police that the mobs ceased.

In the last twenty-four hours, it is estimated that 14,000 Austrian troops have left Trieste for the Province of Dalmatia, which borders on Montenegro, and is within easy striking distance of that bit of sea coast over which Austria and Serbia are at odds. Should there be trouble there, it is agreed in the Austrian capital that the attitude of many of her people of alien race living under her flag will prove a great embarrassment.

Situation Is Delicate.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] London, November 17.—A correspondent of a Vienna newspaper, who has been at the front with the Bulgarians, telegraphs from Sofia under yesterday's date as follows:

"I am not in a position at the moment to give any important information. The Bulgarian army leaders wish to create a fait accompli before allowing any further information to be published."

"Premier Gueshoff, of Bulgaria, informs me that the situation is so delicate that it is impossible for the present to make any statement to anybody."

"The exchange of views is proceeding between the allies regarding conditions for an armistice, which will also form the basis for peace negotiations."

Terms of Peace.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] London, November 17.—Various reports as regards the terms of peace suggested by either side in the Balkan war are rife, and accuracy at the present time is a thing not to be hoped for. One report emanating from Constantinople says that Turkey's terms of peace include proposals that the island of Crete should be ceded to Greece in exchange for the restoration to the Sultan of the city of Salonika and the coastal district now occupied by the Hellenic forces. Adrianople and Kirk Killiseh shall remain Turkish under a decentralized administration. The vilayets of Uskub, Monastir and Scutari will be granted broad autonomous powers if Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro will pay a yearly indemnity to the government of Turkey. The governments of these districts will be centered in representatives of Turkey and each of the Balkan states, the government to have a seat at Uskub.

The railway to Salonika is to be completely free for exports of the articles from Serbia. Kavala is to be a free port for Bulgaria and San Giovanni de Medua is to be a free port for Montenegro.

Kavala is a picturesque seaport of European Turkey, vilayet of Salonika, on the Aegean Sea, and has a considerable trade.

The last Turkish term is that the Balkan states must not demand a separate war indemnity.

Russian Steps of Both.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Budapest, November 16.—A Russian recognition of the Greek occupation of Salonika was interpreted here to-night as a slap both at Bulgaria and Austria.

It rushed Bulgarian newspapers, for the reason that Czar Ferdinand has claimed Salonika for himself or claimed that at any rate the port be internationalized. Austria has suggested it as a port for Serbia as an alternative to one of those on the Adriatic, which the Austrians want for themselves, but naturally Serbia cannot have it, and will continue clamorous for the Adriatic outlet if Salonika is kept by Greece.

The theory here was that the St. Petersburg government was more interested in securing the needs of Germany among the Balkan states than in affronting Austria. Russia, which dominates the Balkan nations, it was urged, wants them to act as much as possible in the near East as possible, but prefers not to have them develop into a strong confederation lest it check Russia's own advance.

Sold for Grand Jury.
Joe Watson, colored, was sold for the grand jury in three cases yesterday morning in Police Court. He is accused of shooting manager Koonaka Plantation, Randolph.

The shooting was a fine one, and the boys deserve the greatest credit, and it would be of the greatest value to our people.
